How being a gamer helps this Ukrainian drone pilot

Posted August 1, 2023

Ukrainian drone pilot Mykhailo tests "first-person view" drones near the southeastern Zaporizhzhia frontline, as the army's counteroffensive against Russia persists. The 25-year-old says that playing video games has helped him control the weapons, which he says can attack at speed from height - making them a serious threat to enemy troops. Lauren Anthony has more.
